EFFECT OF GOULD'S COUP.

It May Break Up the Western Traffic Association.

Several railroad men to-day expressed the opinion that the with rawal of Jay Gould's Misseuri Pacific system from the Western Traffic Association will result in the breaking up of that organization.

Mr. Hould's action, based on alleged rate-culting by other roads, is justified by many of the cilcinis, who think he will now try to establish a railway clearing-house.

It was atmooned by Mr. Gould this afternoon that he did not make the withcrawal of Mesouri Pacific, but that it was dear by the Commissioners presenting the charges of rate cutting which led to it. Several railroad men to-day expressed the tests. Firenze's name is missing from both nandicaps. Mr. M. P. Dwyer, Philip J. Dwyer, J. A. & A. H. Morris and F. C. Mc-Lewee have entered most liberally for both handicaps. M. F. Dwyer is represented in the Brooklyn by Kingston, Longstreet, Receiand, Banquet, Nomad, Yosemite and Castaway II. Philip Dwyer has Bolero, Eon, Sir John, Portchester and Reclare entered. The Messrs Morris will fit Russell, Ambulance, Terrifici and L'Intriguante for the struggle and F. C. McLewee & Co., will depend on Clarendon, Sar Juan, Peter, Rey Del Rey and Uno Grande In the Suburban these owners have practically entered the same lots. Additional horses of note, however, are Tristan, Tournament, La Tosca, Demuth, English Lady, Poet Scout and Curt Gunn. These additions would make a beautiful race of their own. It would be worse than useless to attempt to give any forecast at this early date and the writer will inerely content himself by saying that the Dwyers and Messrs. Morris look to be very strong in their entries. The weights will probably be announced early in February.

The Volunteer and Fort Hamilton handlcaps are both three-year-old events, and one only has to go back over the list of prominent two-year-olds to find out who are entered. The entries are very heavy and include the best horses in the country. Both races should prove brilliant contests.

There was some very good racing at North Bergen yesterday, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather and the bad track. The usual number of ravorites (three) won their races, making the talent happy and the bookles sad. Though this seems like an even break the bookles slaws have the worst end of it. There were two favorites in the first race. The talent plunged on Cassella as being the best of the lot. Their money forced Cassella's price down. Stable money came in on Xenephon, however, and at the close it was 2 to 1 and take your pick. Xenophon won, but it was a close shave with befendant, who rate a good race. Cassella was apoor third. Everyone then remembered how good Xenophon was last year, and they kieked themselves because they had not played him.

They started in on the second race to get their money back, and with this end in view quickly made Repeater the favorite. Considerable money went in on Houston, too, and he was second choice. Emma J. was neglected and went back in the betting. This was strange, for both Repeater and Houston are known to be averse to heavy going, while Emma J. fairly revels in it. She had the best of the weights also. With these things in her favor she fairly ran away from her field and won in a gailop by three lengths. Repeater was second and Houston third.

The fourth race was a surprise, for Birthday, a 10 to 1 shot, won very easily from Sandstone, Van, Bohemian. Wheeler T. and Boyle Khodes. Mr. Marcus Daly, of Montana, has purchased the Hermit-Substitute coit in England and will bring him to America some time during the coming season. This is the coit that Mr. John Hunter last year entered in the American Derby of 1883, thinking that he had purchased him. Later he learned that the owner of the coit had refused his terms and was holding out for a higher price.
